DR. J. C. YOUNG,

dical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

CONSULTATION IN ALL CASES, FREE

CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY REQUIRED

IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, which have done so much ure the reputation of this stitute, are still adhered to, rding those in need of dical aid, the certainty of e and the utmost confidence. There is nothing of so great portance to the sick as to ow where to find a physin whose skill and humanity e assurance of proper and icate treatment. The Doc would respectfully call the ention of those of both sexes o are suffering or in trouble the invariable success that marked the career of the stitute in the seventeen years its existence

It is unnecessary in this contion to enumerate all the plaints treated at the Inute, but the Doctor feels it duty to call especial atten to that terrible scourge, EMINAL WEAKNESS, hat is sapping with its iniousness the very life of its tims, in the treatment and e of which the Institute has ned so enviable a reputa.

READ! READ

aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a sub the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the inciple of life the ignorant may [illegible] my mo the [illegible] to point out to those who suffer, [illegible] d decay the true cause of their affliction, is too incentive to be forced into abeyance. How ex the terrible [illegible] of Seminal Weakness is no the practical [illegible] who devotes his time to its [illegible] tell, but its presence can be detected by [illegible] by noting the following symp Weak [illegible] of the back and limbs [illegible] loss of [illegible] or hands, [illegible] by hot heads; symptoms [illegible]; short breath, flushings of the face; alter [illegible] confusion of the mind, loss of [illegible] colorless, slight discharges upon the [illegible] trembling; palpitation of the heart; ir [illegible]; variable temper, etc.

[illegible] MAN, if you experience any of the various [illegible] stated above, pause to [illegible]. The [illegible] in which you may secure [illegible] happiness. You may feel strong now, but if [illegible] the vice of self [illegible] even in the [illegible], you have the seeds of weakness in your [illegible] and their [illegible] influence will, sooner [illegible], like the fair edifice of your strength to the [illegible] leaving you a helpless object being. It is not a [illegible] that declares itself at once. Therein lies its great [illegible]; for while the patient is being treated for some [illegible] of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or [illegible] sinks into a [illegible] debility that soon adds him [illegible] of the victims of the terrible disorder, [illegible]

[illegible] the best form and languish [illegible] the poor [illegible] wasting vice! Mark the [illegible] of the [illegible] complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye! [illegible] is one of the premonitory [illegible]. At [illegible] easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a [illegible] to pursue his regular business. The [illegible] comes apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible]

[illegible] the nature of the complaint to [illegible] sudden [illegible] that leave the poor victim but little hope of re[illegible]. In a single [illegible] it may wither your fond [illegible] your [illegible]

[illegible] is sought by [illegible] impulse and hope of re[illegible] is an error of the first magnitude [illegible] for the sys[illegible] for the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] he finds himself in a [illegible] while [illegible] condition [illegible] is but the slightest hope of recovery [illegible] would result in offspring, they are [illegible] and degenerate. This is [illegible] whether married or single, and to all [illegible]

[illegible] if you feel any of the symptoms of the ter[illegible] or if your acts have been such as to lead [illegible] secure to you [illegible] the [illegible] of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no [illegible] drugs [illegible] cures, when taken in [illegible] guaranteed, and full and proper vigor re-

[illegible] ficted are assured of every confidence.

ONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

[illegible] the seventeen years since the establishment [illegible] the number of cases of Venereal that have [illegible] show a record unsurp[assed] by any hospital [illegible] and the success that has invariably marked [illegible] of treatment

[illegible] Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

[illegible] exclusively the use of them to be not only un [illegible] but actually dangerous for it is a thoroughly [illegible] medical principle that those poisonous drugs, [illegible] the [illegible] ruin the constitution and destroy

[illegible] effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days [illegible] no difficulty in curing those of long duration [illegible] submitting the patient to such treatment as will [illegible] him the slightest suspicion or oblige him to [illegible] that in-doors or without [illegible] not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, [illegible] quired

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

[illegible] female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and [illegible] for surgical assistance the inquiry should [illegible] is there a physician competent to administer [illegible] whose respectable standing in society will [illegible] him to the confidence of the community? The [illegible] knowing how imperatively necessary these [illegible] are, feels called upon to interpose and by [illegible] attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has [illegible] Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twen[illegible] and is fully qualified to administer in all cases [illegible] and surgically not in a superficial manner [illegible] through a number of years of study and practice [illegible] hospitals and private families—can make, to save [illegible] the hands of the unqualified unscrupulous or [illegible] Their families can rely upon him as upon [illegible] All in affliction can find in him one who can feel [illegible] with and befriend them in trouble—one [illegible] the utmost confidence can be placed [illegible] by letter or otherwise free. Cures guaran[illegible] weakness and from accidental to the sex [illegible] apartments are provided, when desired, where can [illegible] the advantages [illegible] attention of the [illegible] the most skillful and and faithful nurses

[illegible]SPONDENTS.—Persons either male or female [illegible] the interior are often deterred from consulting [illegible] because they cannot spare the time, nor incur [illegible] of a visit to the city. To such he would say [illegible] statement of the symptoms and information [illegible] the complaint will enable him to prescribe [illegible] that they can be cured at home. None need [illegible] delicacy about writing, no matter what the [illegible] their complaint, as the communication will be [illegible] except the Doctor and will be treated with [illegible] confidence and either be returned or destroyed [illegible] consultation Free.

Frightful Calamity in New York

The New Y[illegible] published the following [illegible] of the boiler of a steam fire engine [illegible] the Bowery the night of the 1st [illegible] which five persons were killed outright and [illegible] scalded and mangled.

It seems that the fire [illegible] had been [illegible] to extinguish a fire [illegible] the steamer which exploded taking water [illegible] in front of the Broadway Theatre [illegible] engine was necessarily stationed immediately in front of the entrance to the pit. The steamer was in working under the usual pressure of steam [illegible] nearly half an [illegible] had been extinguished [illegible] received orders to stop the engine and take up. The working of the engine was stopped by Patrick W Hand the engineer in charge. As usual in such cases the water in the boiler having become somewhat exhausted the engineer set the pump to work feeding the boiler. The [illegible] continued but a few moments when the boiler exploded with a fearful noise throwing the steamer over on the sidewalk scattering clouds of hot steam streams of boiling water and showers of dangerous missiles in all directions. The working of a steamer at a fire usually attracts considerable of a crowd about the apparatus particularly in so populous a neighborhood as the Bowery. There was quite a crowd about the steamer at the time and the consternation occasioned by the sudden and unlooked for explosion of the boiler may be imagined [illegible] baffles all description. Unfortunately at the critical juncture the curtain had just fallen on the first act of the play in the theatre and a crowd of men and boys as usual eagerly rushed out through the pit to reach the street.

Had the explosion been previously planned for the purpose of killing and maiming as many as possible under the circumstances it could not have been timed with better advantage, for as the hundreds of men and boys who nightly throng the Old Bowery pit had just reached the sidewalk the boiler exploded. To this unfortunate fact may be ascribed the appalling list of dead and wounded.

The noise of the explosion was so great as to shake all the houses in the vicinity and many windows suffered demolition in consequence. The sight was obscurred by the dense cloud of steam and all was confusion and consternation.

The crowd momentarily dispersed by the explosion rushed back eager to learn the extent of the catastrophe and was soon augmented by hundreds of excited persons attracted by the noise of the explosion. The theatre was abandoned, and for a while the actors were playing to empty benches.

As soon as the steam cleared away a most appalling spectacle met the gaze of the excited lookers on. The engine was turned completely over and the sidewalk and street were literally strewn with the dead and dying. The wounded were in all stages of suffering. Scalded, burnt, crushed with skulls fractured, limbs broken, all bruised and mangled they lay in the street, the air filled with their agonizing cries for help. Some of the sufferers had been blown into the middle of the street while others had been literally thrown into the Bowery Theater entrance. The mangled corpses of four victims of the most horrible catastrophe were found in front of the theater entrance. The engineer of the steamer was blown into the middle of the street and was laying there insensible while the rest of the wounded were laying promiscuously about singly and in groups, as on a hotly contested battlefield.

The explosion is attributable to the carelessness of the engineer Patrick W Hand in allowing the water in the boiler to run too low, and then suddenly feeding the boiler with cold water which striking on the hot surface generated superheated steam resulting in the explosion. Hand has been in the service of the department about one year. He was considered a very competent man and when appointed by the Commissioners was highly recommended by the proprietors of the Fulton, Morgan, [illegible] and other iron works as a competent and reliable man. From the injuries he received he was unable last night to converse about the affair. The boiler was allowed to carry about eighty and ninety pounds of steam, and generally worked at a pressure varying from sixty to eighty pounds.

CHINESE JUSTICE.—The Emperor of China deals summarily with incompetent Generals. In his last proclamation he says:

T[illegible] Chang and [illegible] having been sufficiently [illegible] to the rescue, we have already [illegible] a decree handing them over to the Board of Punishment for a severe investigation of their conduct. Now we receive memorials [illegible] have advanced [illegible] as far as the [illegible] of Hungchai and T[illegible] [illegible] are filled with [illegible] was appointed to the [illegible] for the express purpose [illegible] but he [illegible] allows them [illegible] about at pleasure. Tso [illegible] failed to crush them out as [illegible] while they were yet with [illegible] and is guilty of allowing [illegible] the very neighborhood of the capital [illegible] these officers be handed over [illegible] for investigation. As for Te[illegible] he is a minister upon whom the [illegible] special reliance. When the [illegible] were overrunning this province he [illegible] to have brought forward his troops with all speed. This he has failed to do and gives no explanation of the failure. Let this two eyed peacock [illegible] be plucked away, his yellow robe be stripped off and the hereditary rank of Captain [illegible] the Imperial Horse Guard be revoked.

NEW FEAT IN SHEEP SHEARING—INGENIOUS MACHINE. A correspondent of the Belton (Texas [illegible]) writes:

Speaking of improvements in machinery [illegible] ingenious machine I examined a few days ago at Messrs Chamberlain's [illegible] for shearing sheep. It is really a marvel [illegible] of mechanism. It is very simple, flexible [illegible] readily to every motion on the operator [illegible] cutting seven thousand clips per minute. [illegible] predict a success for the machine and [illegible] inaugurate a new era in sheep shearing to the great relief of the wool growers. It is claimed that it will do the work of four or five men and in a much better manner than by the old process. The sheep cannot be cut in using it except by the grossest carelessness nor will the [illegible] be cut [illegible] is too often the case with hand shears. I enclose you a specimen of the work and a representation of the wonder itself handed me by Mr [illegible] who informs me he has the only machine of the kind in Texas but that it will be generally introduced before the next shearing [illegible].

A [illegible] CAN WRITE. The editor of the Batesville Ark [illegible] says of the Legislature of that State elected under the Reconstruction Act:

There is one remarkable feature pertaining to the present General Assembly which is worthy of [illegible]. There is not a member in either Senate or House of Representatives who cannot write his own name in a plain legible hand. And now we assert without fear of [illegible] contradiction (because we are prepared to prove it) that this is the first General Assembly ever convened in Arkansas in which there were not members who could not write their own names. [illegible] an item over which it would be well for the [illegible] and respectability to ponder.

General Grant is supported by nearly every [illegible] soldier of the Union—Sherman, Meade, [illegible] Geo. H. Thomas, Hooker, [illegible] McDowell, Canby, Emory, Schofield, [illegible] Halleck, Kilpatrick, Logan, Raw[illegible] [illegible] a host of volunteer Generals, many of whom have heretofore been Democrats. General Hancock is the only really eminent officer who seems willing to run with the anti war Democracy.

Speaker Colfax having been appealed to settle a dispute concerning the pronunciation of his name, returned the following answer: "My first name [illegible] pronounced as if written Skyler, and my last as if written Colfax. The [illegible] doubtless dropped [illegible] crossing the ocean."

General Beauregard who is now in New York says that it is extremely improbable that the vote of a single Southern State can be cast for the Democratic candidate.

A late number of the London Spectator contains an elaborate review of the first volume of General Badeau's life of General Grant. Speaking of the Vicksburg campaign the Spectator says:

"No General, not even Napoleon or Wellington, [illegible] worked harder than the unpresuming self effacing energetic officer whom President [illegible] determined to try a little [illegible]." The article closes with an impartial estimate of Grant's great qualities which we quote as we find:

The volume before us closes with the termination of Grant's Chattanooga campaign, where his [illegible] abilities, his keen perception of the right thing to be done, his astuteness [illegible] received fresh illustrations. [illegible] been told briefly, and we [illegible] say that the student may read it in our [illegible] with a fulness never presented before. As specimens of most excellent military [illegible] the campaigns of Vicksburg and Chattanooga will take a very high place in military history, but the record of Grant's career at this moment will be most carefully studied by those who desire to form some conception of the character of the man who may be President of the United States. They will find it great prudence, tempered by a Dantonesque audacity, patience that never fails, a cool temper rarely ruffled, a habit of independence, decision, and reliance on his own judgment, not the slightest fear of responsibility, not a spark of vacillation, keen attention to minute details and a capacity for broad sagacious insight above all the rare [illegible] conspicuous in Wellington, of forming a just estimate of the facts which furnish the conditions of the problem and the sole basis of fruitful action. How far these characteristics, which have been made manifest in a military career of unusual brilliancy, are likely to mark their possessor in civil and political life yet remains to be determined. When Grant emerged from a tanner's shop and took his place in the army, he was clearly deficient in ordinary culture. Since then his mind has been developed and disciplined by varied experience and vast responsibilities. "My only point of doubt," wrote Sherman, in March, 1864 "was in your knowledge of grand strategy and of books of science and history, but, I confess, your common sense seems to have supplied all these." Will that marvelous common sense continue to supply the place of a defective political training? Let us hear Sherman on this point. At the end of December 1863 he wrote these remarkable words to his comrade in arms:

"Your reputation as a General is now far above that of any man living and partisans will manœuvre for your influence, but if you can escape them as you have hitherto done, you will be more powerful for good than it is possible to measure. You said that you were surprised at my assertion on this point, but I repeat that, from what I have seen and heard here, I am more and more convinced of the truth of what I told you. Do as you have heretofore done, preserve a plain military character and let others manœuvre as they will, you will beat them, not only in fame but in doing good in the closing of this war, when somebody must heal and mend up the breaches made by war."

"The time has come when 'somebody' is imperatively required to restore the health of the body politic. Is General Grant that man?"

The Fourteenth Article of the Constitution.

Following is the amendment to the Constitution which the Southern States are [illegible] to [illegible] as a prerequisite to admission to representation:

ARTICLE XVI, SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of Electors for President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall be to the whole number of male citizens twenty one years of age in such State.

SEC 3. No person shall be Senator or Representative in Congress, or Elector of President or Vice President, or hold an office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress or as a member of any State Legislature or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred in payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection and rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations or claims shall be held illegal and void.

SEC 5. Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

GRANT AND THE CLERGY.—The Chaplain of Grant's regiment relates the following incident:

When at home he generally attended the Methodist Episcopal church. While Colonel of the Twenty first regiment he gave every encouragement and facility for securing a prompt and uniform observance of religious services, and was generally found in the audience listening to the preaching.

Shortly after I came into the regiment our mess were one day taking their usual seats around the dinner table when he remarked:

"Chaplain, when I was at home and ministers were stopping at my house I always invited them to ask a blessing at the table. I suppose a blessing is as much needed here as at home and if it is agreeable with your views I should be glad to have you ask a blessing every time we sit down to eat."

Professor Mahan of the United States Military Academy, West Point, speaks as follows of Grant the cadet: "He was what we termed a first-rate [illegible] scientific studies [illegible] finishes the full course [illegible] a clear thinker and a steady worker. He belonged to the class of [illegible] who went to their task at once and kept at it till finished, never [illegible] the slack twisted class yawning, lolling [illegible] over their work and [illegible] sink down from [illegible]"

[illegible] Washington letter to the Philadelphia [illegible] makes this point: [illegible] Ulysses S. Grant took [illegible] rebellion was confi[illegible] Ulysses S. Grant [illegible] parts the Dem[illegible] confident of success [illegible] will be finish[illegible]

Seymour in 1864

In July 1864 President Lincoln called upon New York and Pennsylvania for several regiments of one hundred day militia to drive back the rebels who under Breckinridge, Early and McCausland had crossed the Potomac in force and were raiding in Maryland and Pennsylvania Both Baltimore and Washington were threatened on their weakest sides and no force of veteran troops could be immediately collected to oppose the progress of the rebels While affairs were in this posture the telegraph reported the following, which was published in the OREGONIAN of July 13 1864

General Sanford (of the New York Militia) received instructions this morning not to issue orders for the departure of any city regiment to the rescue of rebel invasion

This shows what Seymour's position then was The Sacramento Bee adds that at the same time this "loyal" Governor was throwing all possible obstacles in the way of General Dix, who was then commanding in New York. Some process had been issued or was about to be issued, as was said for the arrest of General Dix, and it was reported that he had been instructed not to obey it, whereupon the New York Express, always disloyal said.

"As at present advised it is believed that Gov Seymour will, if necessary, after showing the powerlessness of the civil courts, call on the militia of the State to aid in executing the process of the Court if it should issue a warrant for the arrest of General Dix and its execution be resisted"

And the result was that rather than have any conflict there with Governor Seymour General Dix had to be withdrawn from New York ! The Bee of July 13, 1864, commenting on this state of facts said

"Grant is contending with the legions of treason in front of the rebel Capital. While his work is being prosecuted, rebel raiders are prowling about Maryland, stealing property and frightening the women and children, and Lee's left wing or rear guard, under command of Seymour of New York, is vigorously operating north of Mason and Dixon's line in favor of the armed [illegible] south of it For a long time we have been satisfied that in the loyal States a large party existed, the members of which were determined that, if possible to prevent it, the rebels should never be conquered Heretofore they have [illegible] in every way to prevent such a result have worked insidiously and in secret have [illegible] fully perfected their organization and prepared for all contingencies. The commanders of the rear guard or reserve corps now see that a crisis has arrived; the fortunes of the so called Southern Confederacy hang on a balance, and if Grant and Sherman are allowed to prosecute their thus far successful campaigns, the days of rebellion are numbered. To save the rebels, a diversion must be created. Simultaneously—as if the whole plan were long since well understood—with the advance of the rebel raiders, the Copper [illegible] and Copperhead [illegible] open their [illegible] upon the Government, Vallandigham the [illegible], suddenly makes his appearance to [illegible] and a [illegible] rebellion, casting defiance into the very teeth of the Government, Governor Seymour of New York refuses to supply troops to prevent an invasion of the North, and earnestly urges on prosecution and persecution against those officers upon whom in the present emergency the Government naturally places the utmost reliance."

And this is the man whom the Democracy in 1868 set up as their candidate for President !

STATE ITEMS.

A letter from Canyon City states that it is the [illegible] of [illegible] well posted that more gold will be taken out in that region this year than ever before.

A correspondent writing from Rye Valley, says: "The OREGONIAN is the paper up here, even Democrats read it in preference to the Herald—I mean those that can read. Those who can't praise the Herald very high"

The Dalles paper says that the Democracy of that town are not at all pleased with the national nominations. Some of the most prominent are [illegible] disappointed, and if they had the courage would, no doubt, bolt. From appearances, they [illegible] having a jollification of some kind on last Saturday evening, probably to ratify the Presidential nomination.

The Mountaineer says: From Mr Judy, who has just come in from the Ochoco Valley, we learn that over twenty men have taken up farms and settled there permanently. A large number of cattle and sheep have already arrived from other [illegible], and everything has assumed the appearance of civilization. Parties from the Willamette Valley continue to arrive. He thinks that in the [illegible] of a year or two that country will be filled up with [illegible]. He, in company with several [illegible] made a tour of the surrounding country [illegible] to the Ochoco, and found that it was all well adapted to grazing. At no distant day there is bound to be a road running from the Dalles through the Crooked River country to the Pacific Railroad, and this is decidedly the most direct [illegible]. Mr Judy reports that some gold has been found in the vicinity of the new settlement, and on his return he intends to investigate the matter himself. Mr. Pickett, formerly in the paper business in Oregon, has taken up his residence in the settlement

The Petersburg Express says to the blacks We are opposed to your having the right to vote because we do not believe that you yet have knowledge enough to exercise the right judiciously or understandingly None of your race as yet, any where on the face of the earth, has had sense enough to establish a self governing people You have always failed, when without the guiding influence and control of the white race Don't go to the elections Stay away from the polls, if you wish to remain among us in your old haunts and homes Your only rights are to be treated as human beings, but of an inferior order

The Vindicator, a Democratic sheet, published at Pine Bluff, Ark, has the following Another "trooly loil" man was lately killed in Bradley county, and we have information that such will continue until the last of that hateful class is entirely eradicated Among the virtues of the deceased, we notice that he expressed great love for the glorious Union, during the late struggle by robbing and murdering rebels Such being the case, we wish that all of his kind were so far in perdition that Satan's shrewdest detective could not find them

POLITICAL ITEMS

Henry Ward Beecher said before the war, that the prejudice against color was only against color that owned itself When color was owned, he added, there was no prejudice The same principle applies to color voting If color would vote for the Democratic party, the Democratic party would have no objection that color should have the suffrage

Day by day the Richmond Enquirer and Examiner reiterates its demand that Conservative employers shall discharge freedmen who presume to vote, and it asserts that it feels "quite flattered by the denunciations with which its proposal has been visited by some of the Radical papers in the North Its programme, it says is very simple—"Employment and no vote, or vote and starve"

The Lynchburg, Va, Republican kindly informs Chief Justice Chase that "he might have been the next Democratic President of the United States, in defiance of all the world and the rest of mankind" if he had decided the McArdle case in the Supreme Court of the United States three months ago instead of postponing it for party purposes until December If this be true it was certainly thoughtless in the Virginia editor not to have warned the Chief Justice to be more circumspect

The Selma (Ala) Times and Messenger fiercely denounces the "bondholder's conspiracy to accept negro suffrage as a fixed fact It claims that the white governments in the Southern States are not defunct, and says that, should a Democratic Administration be secured this fall, the officers of those governments will, as soon as it is organized demand the assistance of the Federal Government in restoring them to power, and a Democratic President and a Democratic Congress will be compelled to decide between the contesting governments—governments ordained and established by white men according to the laws, and negroized governments ordained and established by Congress in violation of the Federal Constitution

General E J Davis, the President of the Texas Reform Convention, is a native of Florida, and moved to Texas in 1848 He refused to take the oath to the rebel Government, publishing his protest against secession, and his reasons for so refusing When the rebellion broke out he left Texas and organized the fleeing Unionists on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande A body of rebel troops crossed the river, in violation of the laws of nations and captured General Davis and his companion in exile, Captain Montgomery They were taken to Texas and Montgomery was hung Davis being saved by the prompt interposition of the Mexican Government After his second escape he organized the First Texas United States Cavalry, and rose to the rank of Brigadier General He is but thirty eight years of age a pleasant and dignified gentleman and makes a capital officer General Davis is the tallest man in the Convention

Grant and his Friends

From C H F [illegible] letters to the Philadelphia Press

Grant is in a thing more acceptable than in his knowledge of character No great military leader has ever had more devoted friends among his associates and subordinates There are no voluminous letters on file in the department complaining either of his civil superiors or military comrades When he had to censure or dismiss it was done without passion or parade He never stood on punctilio while commanding a strict and instant obedience He parted from few of those with whom he began his unexampled career The friend of Governor Yates and Mr E B Washburne at the beginning of the war he is their friend now All his West Point companions speak well of him, and those who served with him in Mexico remember him with respect Though he had hardships to endure during the rebellion and envies to encounter and enmities to surmount few words of recrimination have fallen from him Even the Blair family who have scolded everybody through four years of the bizarre politics have not attacked him All his Generals gather round him like brothers and there is not one of the Corporal's guard of Brigadiers who have made a sort of commercial arrangement to vote against him that does not make a point to reserve a record of compliments to Grant Of all the public men in the country the only one that ever tried to get Grant into a personal quarrel is Andrew Johnson and this he did after a long and steadily effort to get him into his toils But A J failed in this as completely as when he undertook to restore the rebellion

Opportunity has hair in front but no scalplock where the chignon ought to be If you seize her by the forelock you may hold her, but if suffered to escape, not Jupiter himself can catch her again

Grant and Colfax's Summer Trips

Washington Correspondence Cincinnati Commercial

With General Dent, his brother in law, Mr Grant and the children only, General Grant will leave Washington in a few days for Newport Barracks Kentucky, opposite Cincinnati. At Covington he will see Jesse Grant, his father, for the trip is to be a family and family gathering in all its parts. From Covington the General will go either by water or rail to Jefferson Barracks near St Louis, and while he attends to military affairs at that point will visit a farm of his own [illegible]—the same probably from which he hauled wood to St Louis to sell to the first customer. Then General Grant will go out the line of the Pacific Railway from Omaha as far as the telegraph wires go, so as to be in constant communication with General Rawlins who will administer the army orders [illegible] to directions received daily from General Grant. Returning over the line of the Railway General Grant will take the other Pacific Railway southward and proceed on it as far as the wires go.

Meantime Mr Colfax will pick up his traps as soon as Congress adjourns and he has attended to his closing duties and joined by his sister, mother, father in law and also by Mr Samuel Bowles of Springfield, Massachusetts, and Governor Bross of the Chicago Tribune and A D Richardson of the New York Tribune will proceed West over the Union Pacific Railway to Cheyenne where Mr Colfax has a married sister residing. Here he will meet the sister of General Grant and the gentlemen of the company will then go up into the Rocky Mountains visiting several places described by Fremont but as yet unvisited by Mr Colfax. It is uncertain as to whether Grant will accompany this party or return straightway to the East. Neither General Grant nor Mr Colfax will take part in the coming campaign beyond general conference with each other. It may gratify a good many interested people to know that between the two Republican candidates, office and its apportionment is never discussed. It is Colfax's aim only to keep the Republican party straight on the way to victory and public confidence by keeping it right, temperate and progressive. It is Grant's aim only to get the country steady, make it satisfied and give it peace. Doubtful if any two candidates for mutual honors of so high a rank have ever seemed [illegible] as these men. Both of them are [illegible] in the country's verdict. Grant works hard at the army, Colfax is in his place steadily except when he gives the three new candidates for the Speakership a chance to take a lesson at presiding

"Has the railroad got in?" asked a gentleman of an Irishman, standing at a depot, thinking to quiz him. "One did has, sir," was Pat's reply

WHILE SECRETARY SEWARD IS planning to purchase additional territory, the citizens of Oregon should thereby be reminded to continue purchasing their goods at the lowest possible at KOHN & FISHEL. Their stock of clothing they intend selling regardless of cost to make room for their immense fall stock soon to arrive, and their stock of dry goods they are selling at cost to give the ladies an opportunity to buy at extremely low prices

PORTLAND OREGON July 14 1868

P D MOORE, Esq Sir—

The undersigned having witnessed the exhibition in this city yesterday of your "Extinguisher" or Portable Self Acting Fire Engine would state that the first experiment of a fire kindled outside of the building erected in the rear of the Central Public School House, made by using shavings staves tar &c was effectually extinguished with one machine in a short time, that the second experiment of a fire in the inside of the building made by using shavings kerosene, staves and dry stuff, was also promptly extinguished by the use of one machine in less than three minutes The third experiment was left to the control of the Fire Department under the direction of the Chief Engineer and the building was fired inside and outside and when the fire was well under way the Chief Engineer gave the order to "extinguish" and the fire was effectually put out in about six minutes A brisk breeze was blowing at the time and we pronounce the experiment successful and satisfactory We are satisfied that the "EXTINGUISHER" is very valuable for what it claims namely the prompt extinguishment of fires in their earlier stages and being portable self acting and always ready at a moment's notice would if generally introduced save much valuable property from destruction and we regard it as a valuable auxiliary to the Fire Department They are indispensable in those localities where no steam or other fire engine is in use, and we recommend their use generally in dwellings, stores hotels and public buildings

Very respectfully

ON BOARD THE ALASKA Portland July 13 1868

P D MOORE Esq —Sir I have just returned from witnessing the operations of your "Extinguisher" or Portable Self Acting Fire Engine and confess I was both surprised and highly pleased with its success

I have no doubt whatever of its efficiency and adaptation to putting out fires in their earlier stages however combustible the materials may be that are burning Its action on a flame is really magical They should be in every house of any value or which contains valuable property as well as on board of vessels No one can estimate the additional security they give to both life and property You will please furnish me two of the No 2 size immediately for the Alaska as I sail for Honolulu to morrow morning Very respectfully

R CALHOUN,

DALLES ITEMS — We [illegible] from the Mountaineer [illegible] Our County Court last week appointed J B [illegible] County Assessor [illegible] of Mr J Doherty resigned. Mr A O [illegible] man who was [illegible] rapidly improving [illegible] Captain Quinn and [illegible] through the Dalles on Sunday last with two [illegible] lashed together. He had [illegible] one of the boats [illegible] cut loose from it. Well he [illegible] all right.

...Our new County Court presided over by Judge Pe[illegible] has held its first session last week, the proceedings of which we publish to-day. It will be seen that they contemplated letting to the lowest responsible bidders the feeding of our county poor and the county prisoners. Mr Freeman Johns of this city who has been missing since the 6th inst has not yet been found. It is supposed that he was drowned [illegible] Hood river [illegible] tracks have been found [illegible] into the river but no sign of his having come out. We are informed that he leaves a wife and [illegible] that they are poor and in actual need. A collection was made on Wednesday [illegible] sufficient [illegible] their present wants. A large drove of sheep arrived here on Saturday last en route to the Cariboo [illegible] British Columbia, belonging to a Mr Peoples. Some twenty days before he had started from the Willamette valley with nearly nine hundred head all in good order and arrived here with a few over six hundred head, having lost the balance in crossing the mountains. He informed us that he would have saved money and a great deal of time if he had driven his sheep to Portland and then shipped them up on the boat. They would have arrived here in good order and he would have been twenty days further advanced on his journey. He says he will never drive over the mountains again.

VANCOUVER ITEMS — The following items are from the Register. The work on the water works is progressing rapidly. — Dr Chase has just completed a [illegible] steam engine which is pronounced by competent judges a masterpiece of ingenuity. The saloon known as the "Reserve," kept by Mr Schwartzenberg was entered on Monday night last and robbed of $60 in coin and about $30 worth of music books. The perpetrator is still at large. The troops at this post were paid off last Thursday and as a consequence an unusual number of drunks around. A rather serious row occurred at Young's Brewery on the same evening between the bar keeper of that establishment and a soldier in which the latter shed some blood. In pursuance of notice a number of agriculturalists met in this place on Saturday last for the purpose of organizing an Agricultural Society for Clarke county. The chair was occupied by Mr Lewis Van Vleet. We regret that through the negligence of some one we have not received a report of the proceedings a copy of which was ordered to be handed to us for publication. We learn however that the preliminary steps were successfully taken and that another meeting was called for Saturday the 11th inst when it is hoped the desired object will be fully accomplished.

OREGON CITY ITEMS — The Enterprise has the following news items. The laying of cast iron pipes for street water to the Oregon City Water Works, was commenced on Wednesday last. Mr Moses Miller of Union precinct, presented us a few days ago with a head of lettuce which filled a common apple box. This was only a sample of the productions of his garden. The amount of wool received at the factory in this city so far the present season is very much in excess of the receipts of the preceding years, and is of better quality generally while the price has been below the average of former years. The ruling figures are about 18 cents per pound. ...Perhaps before another issue of the Enterprise on [illegible], Wm. P Burns ex Sheriff will be en route to the East with his family. We trust that their visit may be a pleasant one, and that we may have the pleasure of welcoming them back within a reasonable time. Mr B[illegible] goes as one of the Representatives of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows for the United States a seat [illegible] [illegible] and as productive of good as any in the [illegible] of the nation. The new library for the M E [illegible] School at this city arrived on Wednesday last. The list is said to comprise an excellent assortment of [illegible]

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT — Yesterday afternoon, several little boys in the northern part of the city while playing with powder, met with a most shocking accident. They had by some means obtained two or three canteens of [illegible] and intending to have a celebration on a large scale, [illegible] them on a stump, when one of the little boys, Frank Stewart, touched them off with a match. [illegible] was a terrible explosion, of course, and three of the boys were terribly burned and little Frank is reported [illegible] had his eyes blown out. Their clothes were almost [illegible] torn off or burned off. The names of the other boys are Moses and Ferdinand Bloch neither of [illegible] are more than nine or ten years old. Drs. Glisan and [illegible] were called to attend Mr Bloch's little boys. We were not able last evening to learn the extent of the [illegible] to either of the unfortunate little sufferers, but [illegible] best that can be hoped, they will be severe.

ABOVE THE UPPER WILLAMETTE — A friend who has just returned from the Upper Willamette gives us the following information. The water is falling about one inch in every twenty four hours. The Echo yesterday brought down 65 tons of freight from above. The wheat crop is unusually heavy throughout the valley, and to meet the [illegible] demand of [illegible], quite a large number of new warehouses are being built along the river. The P T Company are constructing their upper and lower warehouses at Oregon City with a staunch addition through which all freight and passengers may pass, [illegible] shelter, from the upper to the lower boats. A new warehouse at Lafayette one at Weston, three at [illegible], two at Albany and the elevator, and one [illegible] and an elevator at Corvallis, are among the im[illegible] going on up that way.

[illegible] THE RIVER. — The steamer Okanagan brought up [illegible] the first lot of new hay — 58 bales. The hay [illegible] along the Columbia bottom lands is said to be very [illegible] and of excellent quality. The river having been [illegible] within its banks, the settlers are enjoying [illegible] prosperity. There are said to be crops of [illegible] and garden stuffs in quantity beyond any seen within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. [illegible] has been organized at Monticello to develop [illegible] mine discovered near there last year. The town of [illegible] is being rapidly rebuilt. At the salt [illegible] near St. Helens preparations are in progress for [illegible] work on a more extensive scale than formerly [illegible] with improved appliances.

[illegible] TOWN AGAIN. — The large fly-wheel mentioned a few days since as having been cast at the Oregon Iron [illegible] for Carter, Hayden & Co, instead of behaving itself as a reasonable fly wheel should took an inconsid[illegible] notion to do a little spouting before it was cool [illegible] to bear such a strain and, like many a human [illegible] ruined itself irretrievably. It rained thunder [illegible] lightning and lava in a very enthusiastic style for a [illegible] or so and then subsided in ruins. The fragments [illegible] to-day, and the mould having been more [illegible] built it is hoped that the second attempt may be more successful. When cast, the wheel will weigh over [illegible] pounds.

M[illegible] EXCURSION. — The Washington Guard had a [illegible] meeting last evening and determined upon having [illegible] Flight Excursion on Wednesday evening, August 2d. The Fannie Troup with two barges for dancing, has been engaged for the [illegible]. The U. S. Cavalry band will furnish the music. If nothing untoward [illegible] this will be the excursion of the season. The [illegible] Guard is famous for doing up such things in good style, and they seem to have determined now [illegible] anything in the way of a pleasure party that has been attempted here for many a year.

THE "A[illegible]" — This new steamer made a trial trip [illegible] afternoon from Canemah to Rock Island and back. Her machinery worked beautifully. She is said to be the finest boat ever built by the P. T. Co., as well as the most roomy and comfortable. All ready to run, she draws but about 15 inches of water and being furnished with powerful machinery, she is expected to run the rapids at all stages of water. Her cost is about $30,000. On Monday she will make her first trip up the river, and will run regularly thereafter.

IN TROUBLE. — The original owner of the water power at Oswego and the Iron Company are in trouble. It is stated that Mr Trullinger, during this week cut a hole in the dam by which the water of the pond was drawn off so as to stop the supply to the Iron Co. This of course, obliges the company to suspend [illegible]. There is some dispute between the parties about the right to use the water, and being unable to settle it amicably, Mr Trullinger resorts to the expedient above mentioned.

QUICK TIME. — A gentleman who knows about it com[illegible] the following: "Mr J Crawford of Albany, left here at 4 o'clock P. M., took [illegible] at the Cliff House, [illegible] in an unaccountable hurry he omitted to pay for [illegible] visited the P. T. Co's new steamer, lodged the same night in Albany (Thursday night) and was back to Oregon City to breakfast next morning settled up and is still alive and doing well." That's what we call tall [illegible]ing.

[illegible] advertising columns this morning will be found the statement of competent and influential witnesses of our city in regard to the operations and merits of the Fire Extinguisher. When such men as our Chief Engineer of the Fire Department and other highly respectable men of Portland as well as those of the principal cities throughout the country so strongly approve and recommend it there must be genuine merit in the ma[illegible] — and we are confident it will meet with general approval and adoption.

THE FAVORS OF THE FAIR. — We are informed that the ladies of Albany are preparing a fine flag to be presented to the P. T. Co.'s new steamer Albany in return for the compliment of naming the finest boat on the Willamette, after the handsomest town on its banks. The flag, we suppose will be presented upon the occasion of the first arrival of the new steamer at Albany.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASES — The contested election cases in Clackamas were [illegible] on Thursday. The day was spent in the examination of witnesses and up to last evening the examination had not been concluded. A great number of witnesses had been called.

MR. WM KEITH the artist leaves this morning over land, for San Francisco with the view of sketching various places in the interior of this State and [illegible]. He takes with him a large number of views which he will paint at his leisure after reaching home.

SICKNESS. — There is an unusual amount of sickness in this city and during the week deaths have been more [illegible] than during the same number of days at any time the last two or three years.

OREGON PRODUCTS. — The following were the receipts [illegible] day: 895 bags wheat 1[illegible] sacks [illegible] 2 bales Woolen goods 10 boxes pears [illegible] bbl butter [illegible] hides.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN of this week beside other [illegible] matter [illegible] the article [illegible] from the [illegible] entitled Portland or Wallamet. It will richly repay reading and worth preserving for future reference.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions. The sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which common is here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior products for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can be even bodily after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, July 17, 1868.

On the 15th, the gold market in New York was reported as opening at 14[illegible], dropping to 141⅞ and finally closing at 142⅝. Quoted at the latter figure on the 16th.

Legal Tenders weak at 70@71c.

Pacific coast wheat quoted at New York, $2 55@$2 75; flour $10 50@$10 50.

Liverpool wheat market 13s 6d—an advance.

San Francisco markets—Sales of Oregon at $6 50, wheat steady at $1 85@$1 90, with free sales; oats, jobbing at $2 20@$2 40 ₱ hundred pounds.

We have nothing new to report in our local produce market. Prices remain as at last report, while movements continue as dull as at any previous period. There can be no reasonable expectation of an improvement before harvest. Even when the new crop shall be gathered, the question of where it shall be marketed will not be of easy solution. All growers of, and dealers in grain, understand perfectly well that the price of breadstuffs for the year must depend upon the supply in and near those countries to which we do or may export. It is worth while, therefore, to learn in advance what we may of the crop prospects everywhere; what countries will be buyers and what sellers.

At [illegible], it is understood that we will have at least an average crop of wheat, and will, therefore, as last year, have a considerable surplus to be sold somewhere. The most reliable estimates we have seen, put the California crop down at an increase of nearly 50 per cent. over that of last year, or, say, 17,000,000 bushels. We have for two or three years, sold more or less to New York City, but the crops this year of the Atlantic States are likely to be fully equal to all wants, and it is to be feared that we must drop New York from our list of buyers. The latest reports from Europe quite generally represent the growing crops of cereals as excellent—better than in any year since 1863. Only a few small districts are represented as short. The prospects are so flattering and the large yield so certain, that wheat has gone down at Liverpool from [illegible] in January to 13s 6d in July. It is [illegible] will not buy this year of American [illegible]. In [illegible] there is reported a deficiency in the [illegible] crop lately harvested, of nearly a million and a [illegible]; but it is not probable that the Australians will be buyers to that amount, as the crops of corn and [illegible] are [illegible] excellent. If Oregon and California [illegible], in disposing of say a half of a million [illegible] to Australia and New Zealand, the year's exports in that direction will be quite up to reasonable expectations. At the latest dates [illegible], wheat was ruling at [illegible]. The [illegible] toward China and Japan [illegible] a constantly increasing [illegible]. At the prices ruling the last year, [illegible] were free consumers and [illegible] higher, they will buy still more largely [illegible] year. In the nature of [illegible], they [illegible] unless flour come very [illegible], which it is likely to do this year. [illegible], which have [illegible] be depended on to [illegible] this year, as [illegible] field. It will thus be seen [illegible] than have [illegible] the markets open to [illegible] demands that it is [illegible] doubtful if over half our surplus can be [illegible] to the producer.

The [illegible] market remains without material [illegible] is buying about as much [illegible] while the orders from the Upper [illegible] off a little. There is still a fair demand for agricultural implements, [illegible] for use in the [illegible]. During the week we have [illegible] up the river of har[illegible] and threshing [illegible]—trade [illegible] dull, [illegible] materials maintain good [illegible]. We [illegible] week, Oregon [illegible], at a lower [illegible]. The Company at Cement [illegible] about 250 bbls per [illegible] the [illegible] doubles in value to the [illegible] supply [illegible] are [illegible].

The [illegible] July 14, [illegible]

His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which, if he would only take the case to Court, would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrid life-destroying maladies; see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible], blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails at effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to such patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or care of Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoe-makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make [illegible]—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible].

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney st., corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 952.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 952 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
